DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. While applicant states that the amended portion of Claim 1 can be found at page 11, line 19 through page 13, line 23 Examiner does not see the necessary information to back up the amendment. The specification never claims that the engaging part engages the main body when the internal cap is separated and when the internal cap is not separated from the main body.

4. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. It is unclear how the elastic concave and convex structure is provided at the periphery projection and slide contact part when it appears to be above the periphery projection and slide contact part. It is also unclear what is sliding and contacting (Is it sliding and contacting the upper surface of the interior cap?).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

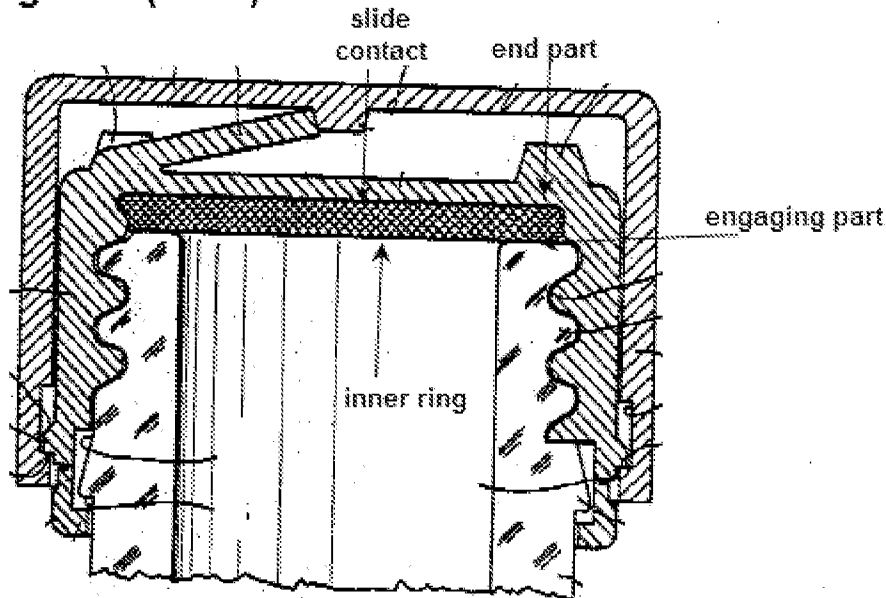

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Grau (U.S. Patent No. 3,944,102).

7. Regarding Claim 1, Grau discloses a safety container comprising a container main body 12 (Figure 1); an internal cap 14 (Figure 1) configured to be fit to an opening part of the container main body; and an external cap 18 (Figure 1) configured to be fit to the internal cap rotatably and moveably in upper and lower direction; wherein the external cap is not rotated with the internal cap in a case where only the external cap is rotated in an opening direction (Column 2, Lines 4-16); wherein the external cap is rotated in a state where the external cap is pressed toward an internal cap side so that the external cap and the internal cap are engaged and the internal cap is opened and separated from the container main body (Column 2, Lines 1-3); wherein the safety container further comprises an inner ring (Figure 1 below) having an end part (Figure 1 below) where an engaging part (Figure 1 below) is provided that engages a top part (Figure 1) of the opening part of the container main body both in a state where the internal cap is not separated from the container main body and a state where the internal cap is separated from the container main body and another end part where a slide contact part (Figure 1 below) is provided; and wherein the internal cap is rotated with the external cap while the internal cap slides and contacts the slide contact part, by rotating the external cap in the opening direction in a state where the external cap is pressed toward the internal cap side until a rotation angle reaches a designated angle.

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claim 2 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

9. Claims 3-5 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

10. Applicant's arguments, filed 11/10/08, with respect to Claims 2-5 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The 35 USC 102 (b) rejections of Claims 2-5 have been withdrawn.

Art Unit: 3781

11. Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 1 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

12. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
